"Frosted Flora"

* literally translates to "Ice/Icy Ass/Rear Vegetable" and is funny because the symbol for ketsu (the 2nd one) is also used when referring to a cave, which they are in. But sorry for the cheesy English name.

Today's such a nice day and you're hiding in here~? You like the Ice Cave that much?
I actually come here every summer.
Ahh. It's so hot outside around this time.
Hmm, really...? But the sun feels so good...
What's wrong?
Ah!
Hmm...
...Are you holding ice? You really do like the cold.
But it feels so good, even holding it just for a little bit.
Achoo!

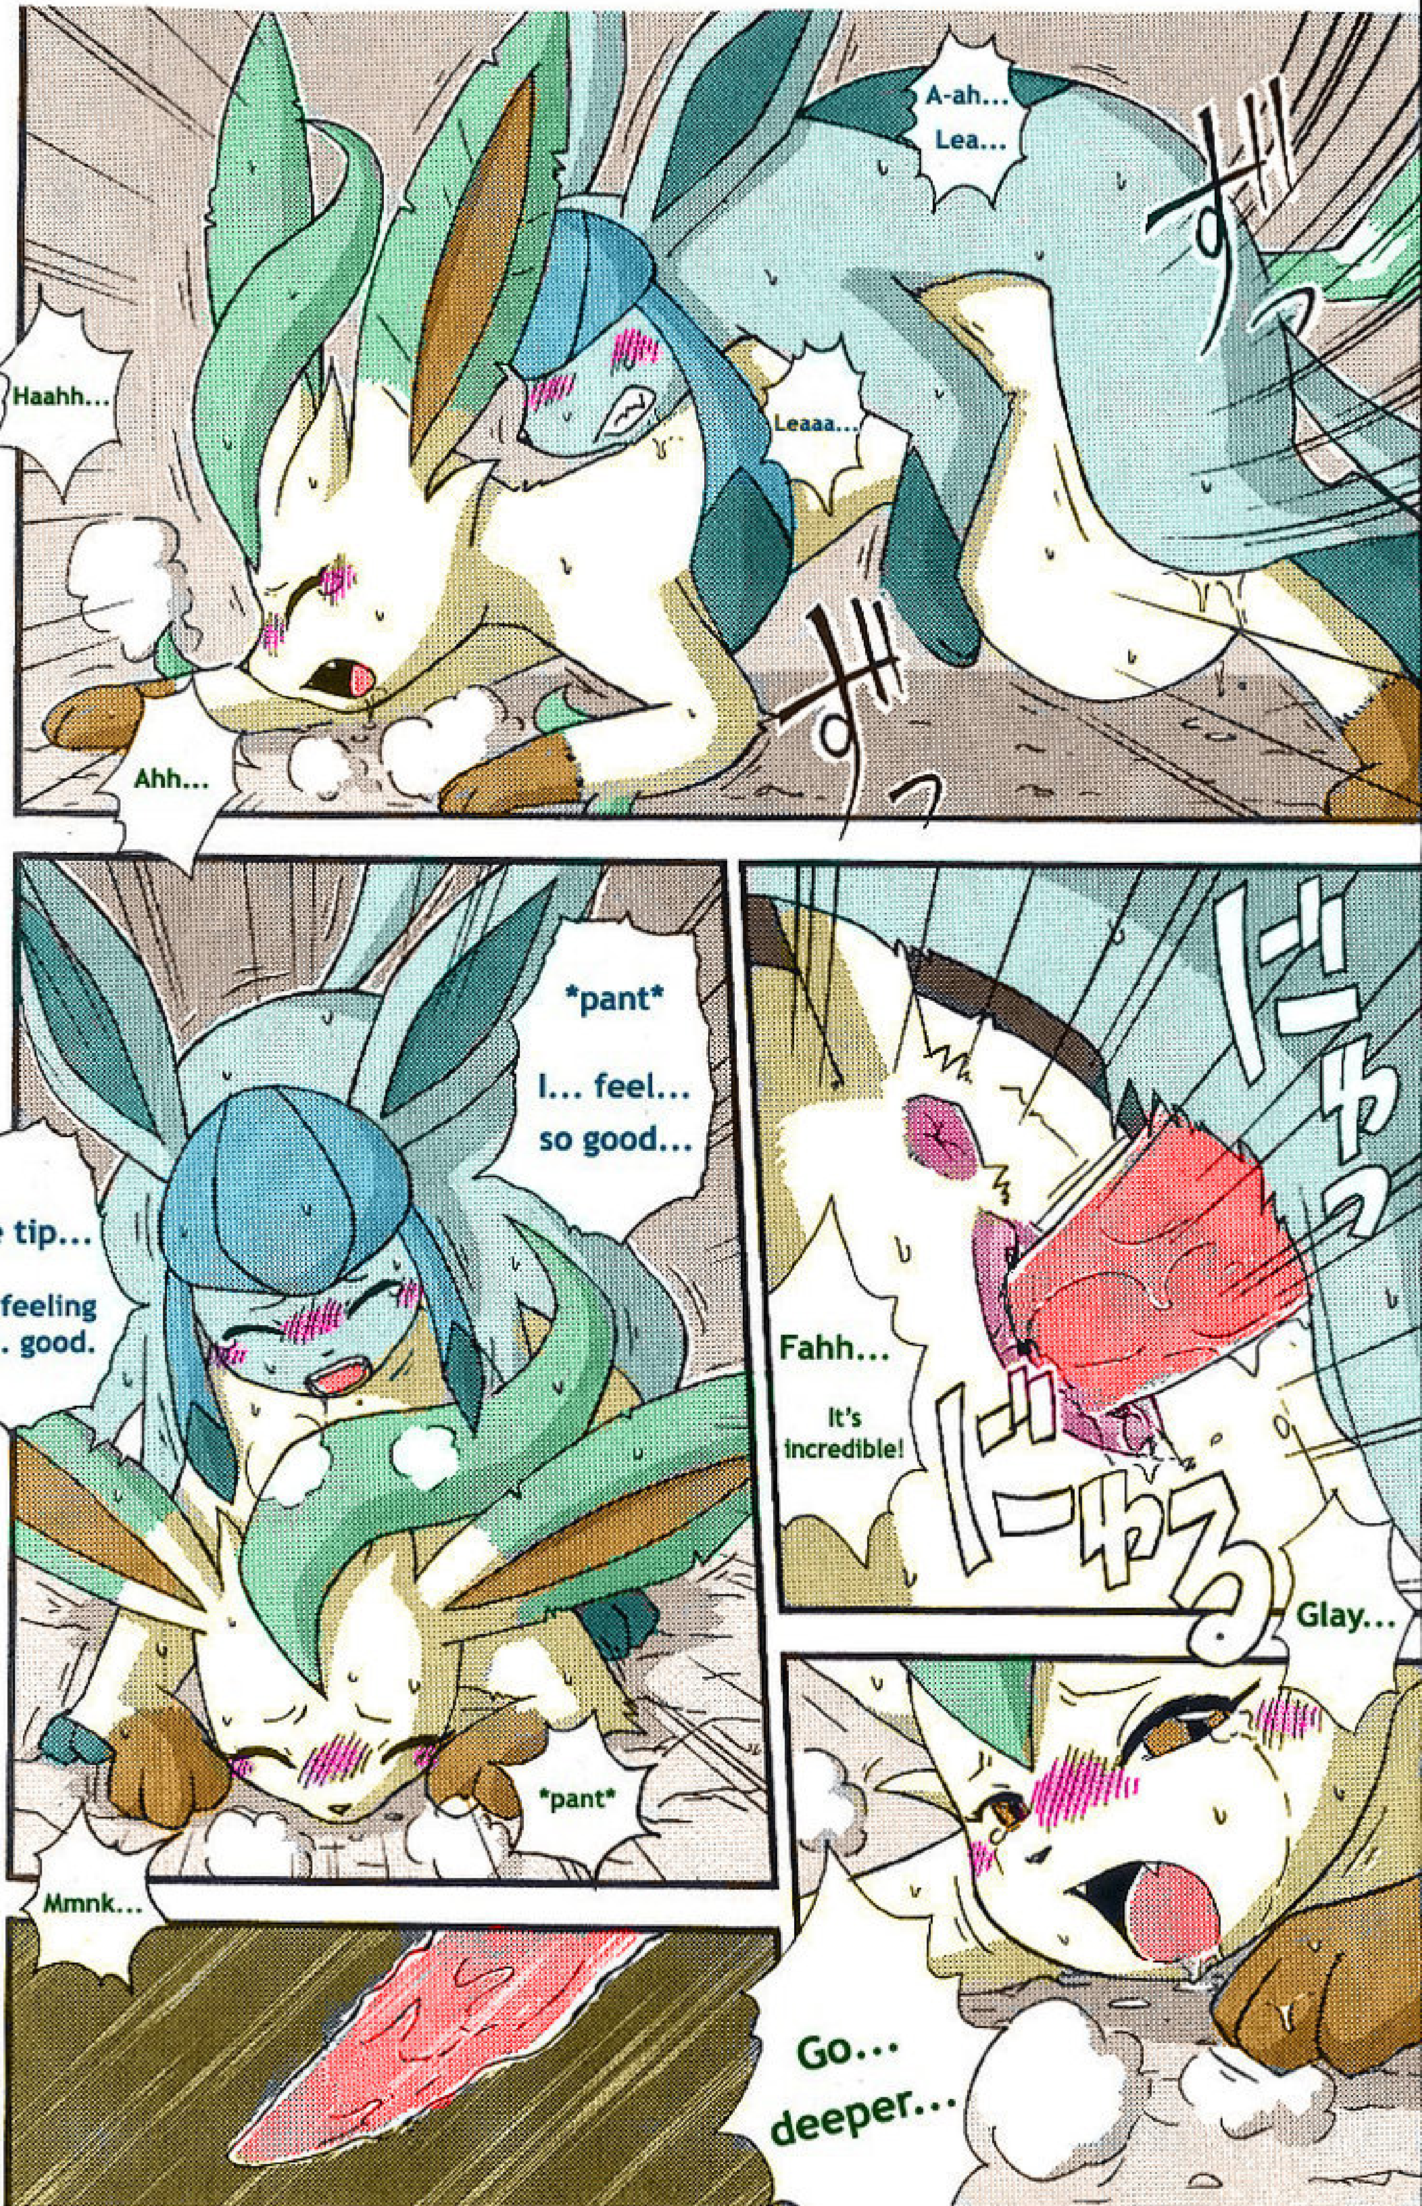

It's too cold in here for you, Lea.
You can't handle it when it's this cold, can you?
No, it's alright.
I want to be here.
I just...
I just want to be here with you, Glay.
Wh... what?
That was pretty sudden.
But will you leave me?
No!
It's okay.
Just as long as I can sit next to you.
You... You know, Lea...
I never sit next to anyone like this...
Really?
Is it?
Yeah.

!!
...Sorry.
It was bad wasn't it?
No!
Not at all!
B-but, Glay, why'd you do that so suddenly?
What for?
Eh?
It's just... because you're pretty and...
because I think I love you.
